

Accelerometer Placement Examples & Options

General Instructions:

The accelerometer (motion sensor) should be worn over the right hip and fastened snugly with the belt around the waist unless instructed otherwise.

Accelerometer attached directly to the belt

Accelerometer attached to belt with pouch

If a pouch is used, the accelerometer should not be removed from the pouch. The safety pin on the back of the pouch can be used along with the belt to hold the accelerometer in place.

